

APTEAN PROCESS MANUFACTURING ERP ROSS EDITION

EXTENDED PROFILE

OVERVIEW

Aptean Process Manufacturing ERP Ross Edition is especially used by process manufacturers in the metals, chemicals, life sciences and natural product development industries.

The platform is modular, letting companies choose specific apps or the full package. Additional modules like dashboards, business intelligence, and HR can be added using other Aptean products.

Designed for businesses using formulas and recipes, Aptean Process Manufacturing ERP Ross Edition works with databases like Oracle and Microsoft. It's available in multiple currencies and languages and can be installed or accessed online.
