

ODOO ONLINE

EXTENDED PROFILE

OVERVIEW

Odoo Online is an open-source suite of business applications that includes all the expected features of an ERP system, including finance, billing, and costing, as well as a suite of features for manufacturing process handling. The software is suitable for companies of all sizes.

The platform is a good fit for organizations that want a single, customizable ERP solution. The company offers an application for most business requirements, ranging from sales and accounting to inventory management and e-commerce. As a modular system, organizations can add further functionality as and when they require it. Moreover, due to the open source model of Odoo, the suite is continually expanding and becoming increasingly feature-rich.

An example of an Odoo Online manufacturing feature is the inventory management module. The application incorporates barcode scanning, powerful schedulers, and highly customizable reporting tools. The accounting dashboard is a useful tool for the administration element of a business. This app allows users to quickly analyze cash flows, invoices, and billing from a single, configurable screen.

HOW MUCH DOES ODOO COST?

Odoo is available as a cloud solution. The free plan offers restricted use to just one app. Meanwhile, Odoo Online is priced per user, per month, and is dependent on the number of apps installed. Odoo Online offers some mobile support in that it offers a native Android application.

All Odoo plans include unlimited support, hosting, and maintenance. For more on Odoo's pricing information, download the extended software profile.

Alternatively, you can download our full ERP pricing guide via the 'price' button above. Alongside it, you'll find an Odoo demo video covering how to process manufacturing orders.
